DECLARATION

The Institute requires all of its admitting students to obtain a high school diploma or GED Certificate. A student may be admitted by submitting a signed affidavit of earning a high school or equivalents credentials and providing such evidence to the Institute within the end of the student's starting term or three months thereafter, whichever occurs sooner. The Institute currently does not admit any students under an ability-to-benefit determination.

I _____ hereby attest that I have completed high school, or have attained an equivalent credential. And further, if requested, I am willing and able to produce my diploma or equivalent. I certify that the above information is true and complete. I understand that any false or incomplete information submitted in support of my application may invalidate my application and result in the withdrawal by Tysons Institute of an offered seat at any time during my enrollment.
